

INFORMED CONSENT – PRIVACY POLICY – THERAPY AGREEMENT

Welcome! This document answers many questions clients often ask about therapy and explains procedures, expectations, and privacy policy. After reading and fully understanding its contents, you will be asked to initial each page and sign the agreement. Please retain a copy for your records/reference.

SESSION FEES:

Intake: $175 Couple/Family: $200 Individual/Child: $150 Coparenting/Divorce: $250

All professional time will be billed for at a rate of $2 per minute. This includes writing or reading reports or letters on your behalf, scoring of rating scales/evaluations, consultation/phone calls, email communication, extended sessions, copying/ mailing of records, off-site observations (including travel time), etc. While there is no charge for calls to schedule/change appointments, inquire about services, etc., after hours consultation calls are charged 150% of the usual rate.

Your session time is for you and is taken seriously. You are contracting for the time you have scheduled. Please make every attempt to attend your scheduled sessions and arrive on time. Twenty-four (24) business hours’ notice is required in order to cancel an appointment. To maintain consistency from one client to another and to maintain flexibility to be able to meet with clients in a timely manner, exceptions (excluding unavoidable emergencies), will not be made. If an appointment is not canceled 24 hours in advance, you will be charged for the session. This helps to eliminate “No Shows” and ensures maximum appointment availability for you.

After hour appointments, as well as weekend appointments, are available with some therapists for an additional fee. Please check with your therapist for scheduling hours.

PAYMENT:

Payment in full for all professional services is due at the time of the service. You (or parent/guardian) are directly responsible for payment. Fees may be adjusted individually, based on the needs of the client when agreed upon by the provider. Checks should be made payable to your individual therapist. Credit cards and cash are also accepted. It is helpful to have checks made out before the session begins. Returned checks are subject to a $35 service fee which must be paid prior to the next appointment, and future payments will be required to be made with cash or money order. Because payment is due when services are rendered, we usually do not send bills. If, however, a situation necessitates that you be billed, please remit payment within five days of receiving the invoice. Should payment problems arise, they must be worked out openly and quickly. Such problems can greatly interfere with counseling/therapy progress and our working relationship.

INSURANCE:

In-Network

Some therapists are in network to provide insurance coverage. For these therapists to set realistic treatment goals and priorities, it is important to evaluate what resources you have available to pay for your treatment. If you have a health insurance policy, it will usually provide some coverage for mental health treatment. With your permission, your therapist will assist you to in filing claims and ascertaining information about your coverage but you are responsible for knowing your insurance benefits/limitations such as the number of sessions allowed per calendar year, authorized time periods, and so on. It is also your responsibility to let your therapist know if/when your coverage changes. Due to the rising costs of health care, insurance benefits have increasingly become more complex. It is sometimes difficult to determine exactly how much mental health coverage is available. Managed Health Care plans such as HMOs and PPOs often require advance authorization, without which they may refuse to provide reimbursement for mental health services. These plans are often limited to short-term treatment approaches designed to work out specific problems that interfere with a person’s usual level of functioning. It may be necessary to seek approval for more therapy after a certain number of sessions have been met. While a lot can be accomplished in short-term therapy, some patients feel that they need more services after insurance benefits end. Some managed-care plans will not allow a therapist to provide services to you once your benefits end. If this is the case, your therapist will attempt to find another provider who will help you continue your psychotherapy. You should also be aware that most insurance companies require you to authorize your therapist to provide them with a clinical diagnosis. (Diagnoses are technical terms that describe the nature of your problems and whether they are short-term or long-term problems. All diagnoses come from a book entitled the DSM-V. Sometimes providing additional clinical information such as treatment plans or summaries, or copies of the entire record (in rare cases) are necessary. This information will become part of the insurance company files and will probably be stored in a computer. Though all insurance companies claim to keep such information confidential, therapists have no control over what they do with it once it is in their hands. In some cases, they may share the information with a national medical information databank. Your therapist will provide you with a copy of any report we submit, if you request it. By signing this agreement, you agree that your therapist can provide requested information to your carrier if you plan to pay with insurance.

Out-Of-Network

Your health insurance policy is a contract between you and your insurance company. Some therapists do not contract with insurance companies to be one of their network providers and are not a party to your specific contract. You may be eligible for “out of network” benefits, but will need to research the extent of your coverage to make this determination. Insurance benefits may only apply to the counseling/therapy services which we provide as a Licensed Professional Counselor. You are responsible for completing and filing the necessary paperwork for insurance reimbursement. We will provide you a receipt for services rendered. Please let us know if you intend to access your insurance benefits as additional information, such as a specific diagnosis, if determined to be present, is usually required. You are also responsible for keeping track of your benefit requirements/limitations such as the number of sessions allowed per calendar year, authorized time periods, and so on. Please be aware we have no control or responsibility for confidentiality procedures employed by your insurance company. Should you choose insurance as an option, we may be required to provide the company with your personal health information, which includes history as well as current status, for you to be reimbursed. You must give written permission for the release of your personal health information.

CONFIDENTIALITY:

All information shared in session is held in strictest confidence according to federal regulations. The following are exceptions: 1) Legal obligation such as child or elder abuse, court subpoena, cooperating with law enforcement officers, etc., 2) Suspected personal danger to yourself or an identifiable victim, 3) Information required by insurance companies for payment (for which you consented), 4) Information provided to parents if the client is a minor, 5) Valid collection of a debt, and/or 6) Consultation with other professionals in order to aid in the counseling/therapy process (identifying information will be withheld unless written permission is given). Release of information to other individuals, agencies, or professionals may only be done with your written consent.

OFFICE HOURS/APPOINTMENTS:

Contact your individual therapist for office days and times. You may ask to have the same time each week for your appointment. We will do our best to accommodate your request, as certain time slots are in demand and fill quickly.

When in session with a client, we will not be able to take phone calls. Please leave a message on our individual voicemail. We make every attempt to return calls daily. Emergency calls may be taken after hours and charged the ‘after hours’ rate. As we honor and value our personal self-care time and time with family, we ask that you limit after hour calls to emergencies only.

EMERGENCIES:

As a rule, our practice is not crisis oriented in nature. If you feel you will need more intensive after hours support on a regular basis, please inform us during our first session. We will be happy to help you locate a provider whose practice is more suited to on-going crisis intervention.

For an emergency, please attempt to contact your individual therapist. If we cannot be reached immediately by phone, you, your family member, or friend should call the HOUSTON CRISIS HOTLINE at 713-468-5463, DIAL 911, or GO/BE TAKEN TO THE NEAREST HOSPITAL EMERGENCY ROOM.

LEGAL MATTERS:

Should you ever become involved in a divorce or custody dispute, we will not provide evaluation (written or otherwise) or expert testimony in court. You should hire a different/neutral mental health professional for any evaluation or testimony you require. This position is based on two main reasons: 1) Our statements will be seen as biased in your favor because we have a counseling/therapy relationship, and 2) the testimony may affect the counseling/therapy relationship, and we must put this relationship first. This applies to all clients regardless of age. In the event that testimony be required, your therapist will bill for loss of time and wages.

If, as part of your session work, you create/provide to us records, notes, artworks, or any other documents or materials, we will return the originals to you at your written request but will retain copies. You have the right to review or get copies of your personal health information with limited exceptions. You must submit a written request and allow a reasonable time period (maximum of 30 days) for compliance. If you are concerned that we have violated your privacy rights, or disagree with a decision we have made in regards to access to your personal health information, please inform us immediately. You also may submit a written complaint to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

Violations: In our practice we follow the professional code of ethics of the American Counseling Association. Any violations of the Licensed Professional Counselor Act should be reported to: Texas State Board of Examiners of Professional Counselors, 1100 West 49th Street, Austin, TX 78756-3183, 512-834-6658.

ABOUT THERAPY:

Seeking help through counseling/therapy is a wonderful way to gain new clarity as well as obtain practical tools to support you in your daily living and in navigating life transitions. Because you will be investing time, energy, and money, it is important to choose a therapist with whom you are comfortable.

Our work together will focus on wellness and increasing overall life satisfaction. Utilizing a problem-solving/skill-building approach, we will work together to identify developmental and/or life issues and concerns with which you may be dealing and useful skills to help you address your problems. We will devise a plan to help you incorporate your new skills into your daily living. Homework may be assigned which you will be asked to complete as a means of moving toward the achievement of your goals.

Although no counselor/therapist can ethically guarantee achievement of goals, it has been our experience that the more you put into the process, the better the chance for positive, lasting results. Because the work that we do is a process and often has a cumulative effect, it can be helpful to commit to a minimum number of at least six sessions.

While you most likely will experience gains in as little as one session, it generally takes longer for deeper work. You or your therapist have the right to terminate this agreement at any time. At least one session's notice is helpful for all involved, should the decision to terminate, by you or by the therapist, occur. This allows for closure. If needed, you will be provided the names and phone numbers of other qualified counselors/therapists.

The Benefits and Risks of Counseling/Therapy: There may be some risks as well as many benefits with counseling/therapy. You should think about both the benefits and risks when making any treatment decisions. For example, there is a risk that you will, for a time, have uncomfortable levels of sadness, guilt, anxiety, anger, frustration, loneliness, helplessness, or other such feelings. You may recall unpleasant memories which may bother you in settings outside of our sessions. You may receive feedback from some people who mistakenly suggest participating in this process is a sign of weakness. (By the way, we believe investing in your personal growth is a sign of courage and strength!)

Also, this process has the potential to impact your relationships with people who are important to you such as members of your family. You may experience a temporary worsening of problems after beginning, although this usually passes as you learn new skills and increase your self-confidence in applying them. Most of these risks are to be expected when making important changes in your life. Finally, even with our best efforts, there is a risk that counseling/therapy may not work out well for you.

While you consider these risks, you should also know the benefits of counseling/therapy have been scientifically researched and validated. People who are depressed may find their mood lifting. Others may no longer feel afraid, angry, or anxious. Through this work, you will have a chance to talk things out fully until your feelings are relieved or your problems are solved. Your relationships and coping skills may improve greatly, increasing your overall satisfaction. Your personal goals and values may become clearer. You may find yourself growing in many directions and experience an increased ability to live authentically and fully enjoy your life.

What to Expect from Our Relationship: Services are best provided in an atmosphere of trust. You expect us to be honest with you about your problems and progress, and we expect you to be honest with us about your expectations for services, your compliance with medical advice from your doctor, and any other treatment issues. As a Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC), we will use our best knowledge and skills to help you achieve your goals. Our duty is to care for you and my other clients, but only in the professional roles of counselor/therapist. Ethically, we are bound to avoid "dual relationships." We are not able to advise you from other professional viewpoints such as law, medicine, finance, etc. We must honor confidentiality (excluding the areas mentioned below as confidentiality exceptions). To maintain privacy, we do not reveal the identities of our clients without their consent. Therefore, if we meet on the street, we may not say hello or talk to you very much. This would not be a personal reaction to you, but rather an effort to maintain the confidentiality of our relationship. Lastly, we cannot socialize or have a romantic relationship with any of our clients, and cannot provide counseling/therapy to any family members or friends.

EMAIL AND TEXTING CONSENT

HIPAA regulations and my professional Code of Ethics both require that I keep your Protected Health Information (PHI) private and secure. Emails and texts are very convenient ways to handle administrative issues like scheduling or receipt requests, but email and texts are not 100% secure. Some of the potential risks you may encounter if we email or text include:

- Misdelivery of email/text to an incorrectly typed address.
- Email/text accounts can be "hacked", giving third party access to email/text content and addresses.
- Email/text providers (i.e., Gmail, Yahoo, etc.) keep a copy of each email/text on their servers, where it may be accessible to employees, etc.

For these reasons, I will not use email/text to discuss clinical issues (i.e., important things we talk about in session). If you are comfortable doing so, I am happy to use email/text (text for appointment reminders only) to handle small administrative matters like scheduling and billing. If you are not comfortable with these risks, we may handle administrative issues via phone calls.

Please indicate your preference about email/text below and sign.

(initials) I do consent to use of email and/or text for administrative matters.

(initials) I do not consent to use of email and/or text for administrative matters.

If given, consent will expire 2 years after our last appointment. Please remember reminders will be sent only via emails or texts. I will respond to you briefly via email but never text.
